STATSMINISTER JAN P. SYSE TIL NATO-TOPPMØTET I LONDON

Statsminister Jan P. Syse vil lede den norske delegasjon til det forestående NATO-toppmøtet i London 5.-6. juli 1990. Han ledsages av utenriksminister Kjell Magne Bondevik.

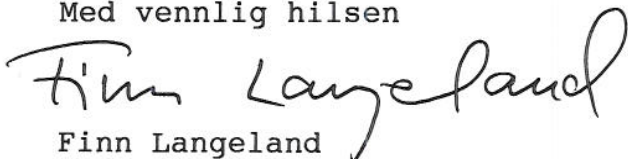

Statsministeren og utenriksministeren bor i ambassadens residens, den øvrige delegasjon bor på Rubens Hotel, Buckingham Palace Road, London SW1, tlf. 071-834 6600.

Vedlagt følger den presseinformasjon for toppmøtet som statsministerens kontor har fått oversendt fra NATO-delegasjonen i Brussel.

Det gjøres spesielt oppmerksom på akkrediteringsfristen, 29. juni. Akkrediteringssøknader for presserepresentanter bosatt utenfor Belgia skal sendes direkte til London, Foreign and Commonwealth Office.

Fra Statsministerens kontor er det statssekretær Kai Eide, pressetalsmann Finn Langeland og rådgiver Dag Wernø Holter som ledsager statsministeren til London.

Med vennlig hilsen

Finn Langeland
Pressetalsmann

Pass Collection

Passes can be collected from 2 July at the Media Centre's accreditation desk on production of a valid press pass and other photographic proof of identity. The proof of identity should be carried at all times.

Media Facilities

The Media Centre will be located in marquees in Green Park, entrance from Piccadilly.

The NATO Press Service and NATO Media Section (NATIS) will have offices there. There will also be a Summit Information Desk nearby.

There will be a Press Working Area with typewriters, telephones, fax and telex machines.

All events open to the Media will be relayed by closed circuit television to the Media Centre.

A restaurant and bar, and first aid assistance will be available in the Media Centre.

Television

There will be three Television Studios with direct transmission located in Green Park near Lancaster House.

TV networks with special requirements are requested to contact:

David Grieve or Johanna Moriarty
TV Facilities Unit
Central Office of Information

Telephone: 071 261 8970/8206

Radio

There will be 10 radio studios available for booking through the Summit Information Desk.

Radio correspondents with special requirements are requested to contact:

Mr Martin Smith
Radio Technical Facilities
Central Office of Information

Telephone: 071 261 8774

Photography

There will be a photographers' working area in the Media Centre. Electrical power (240 v AC) and water will be provided.

NATIS photographers will cover all events open to the media and copies of black and white and colour photographs will be displayed on a board in the Media Centre. Copies will be available free of charge.

Photographers requiring further information should contact:

Mr David Scrivener
Central Office of Information

Telephone: 081 217 2556

Dedicated Communications

News organizations requiring dedicated telephone lines at their own expense in any of the above areas are requested to contact:

John Bartlett
BT Business Sales

Telephone: 071 261 4829

Pooling Arrangements

As space is limited most media access will have to be pooled. Pool material will be available to all recognised organizations on demand.

A media pooling schedule will be available on Wednesday, 4 July.

Briefing Facilities

As it is not possible to allow media representatives general access to Lancaster House, a number of briefing rooms have been constructed in Green Park close to Lancaster House.

Programme

A programme and media briefing material will be available on accreditation.
