

International Workshop "Safety and Security in the Slums", Norad Auditorium, 4th Floor, Ruseløkkveien 26, Oslo. 28. August 2009. Preliminary programme.

- 9.00am Background to the Workshop. Mr Morten Wasstol, Junior Minister Environment and International Development
- 9.15am Expectations from the Workshop. Mr Jockin Aruputham, President of Slum Dwellers International
- 9.30am "Development Challenges related to future global urbanisation with emphasis on safety and security. Implications for international civil society". Dr David Satterthwaite, Senior Researcher, International Institute for Environment and Development, London.
Discussion
- 10.30am Community policing – some Experiences
A.N Roy, Director General of Police, India
Halvor Hartz, Police Advisor, Norwegian Institute of International Affairs
Discussion
- 11.15am Land security in urban slums – some technological and social challenges.
Helge Onsrud, Director, The Mapping Authority of Norway
Sheela Patel, Director of SPARC, India
Discussion
- 12noon Coffee Break
- 12.15pm Women and security through savings,
Rose Molokwane (Federation of Urban Poor, South Africa)
Sonia Cadornigara (Federation of Slum Dwellers, Philippines)
Ines Magalhaes (Secretary for Housing, Brazil)
Discussion.
- 1.00pm The housing policies of the Nordic Welfare States – a relevant "better practice" for the developing world? Senior Advisor Viggo Nordvik, Norwegian Social Research (not confirmed)
Discussion.
- 1.45pm The way forward. Morten Wasstol and Jockin Aruputham.
- 2.00pm Lunch Hosted by the Housing Bank of Norway

The event is jointly arranged by SDI/IUPF and the Min. of Foreign Affairs, Oslo.

The Board of Governors of the UPFI are national ministers nominated by their governments.
The current board is made up of Brazil, India, Norway, South Africa, Sri Lanka and Sweden.
Patrons of UPFI are Archbishop Desmond Tutu and Ms Mary Robinson.

Tel +27 21 689 9408 Mobile +2782 770 9716 Email Saths.Moodley@gmail.com
PO BOX 14038 Mowbray 7705 Cape Town South Africa
Web www.sdinet.co.za/upfi